

Dress Code

Because the appearance of our students reflects the quality of our schools, conduct expectations, and student performance, we require students to follow the following dress codes:

PreK

The dress code for Mitchell-Neilson School is simply solid color shirts and solid color pants. (Any color is ok.) No writing is allowed on shirts or pants unless it is a school t-shirt. As with all school's dress codes, no flipflops or sandals are allowed for safety reasons on the playground or in the gym. Tennis shoes with socks are required each day. Please contact your child's teacher with questions.

Grades K - 5 Dress Code

Monday through Thursday, students are required to wear a solid color polo style or oxford style button up collared shirt. The shirt can be any color but it must be free of logos or screen printing – plain shirts only. Students may not wear t-shirts unless it is a school-issued shirt. Students may wear pants, must reach the hands by your khaki, navy blue, back must be wheels are not allowed. Shirts do not have to be tucked as long as they are not longer than the bottom of the pockets on their pants. No oversize shirts and no sagging. Long sleeve shirts can be worn under the polo for warmth but must be solid in color – no visible logos or screenprinting. Light sweaters, sweatshirts, or light jackets can be worn in the classrooms, but they must be solid in color. Students can wear hoodies but must leave the hood down when in the building. Leggings cannot be worn as pants. Leggings can be worn underneath skorts or shorts of appropriate length (touching fingertips while standing). Heavy jackets are not allowed during instruction and must be put away in cubbies. unless needed for outside play or classes conducted outside. It is advisable to put the child's name inside coats and jackets so they can be easily identified if lost.

Friday is an earned Casual Day

Students are allowed to wear casual clothes including jeans on Friday if they have followed the dress code Monday through Thursday and their behavior and work ethic has met expectations. Leggings cannot be worn as pants. Clothes must be in good taste. Low cut shirts are not allowed. Skirts and shorts must reach the fingertips while standing. No vulgar or offensive logos or pictures. No shirts promoting alcohol, drugs, or tobacco. Closed-toe shoes are required. Casual Day is a privilege not a right. Casual Day could be revoked or suspended as a consequence of behavior or consistent violation of the dress code.

Grade 6 Sixth grade students are allowed to wear casual clothes including jeans. Casual Days may be revoked or suspended as a consequence of behavior or consistent violation of the dress code.

The staff reserves the right to make decisions about what accessories are distracting or unsafe. For safety reasons, ALL students (K-6) should wear closed-toe shoes. NO sandals or flip-flops.
